THE TRIUMPH OF THE CAPPED SHOT OVER ARMOUR.

Engineering publishes some striking photographs and results of trials of an upto date armour-plate, measuring 8 ft. by 6 ft., and having a thickness of 6% in. full, It was made by the Vicker-Krupp cemented process, and tested by Vickers gun. Two shots fired at the plate from a 6-in, gun with a striking energy of 3087 foot-tons had no effect, although they were of the so-called armour-piercing type, but were completely broken up, the penetration being only 17 in. For the third round it was decided to use the 6-in, shor litted with the Johnson cap, as manufactured at the Barrow Works of the Vickers Company, the weight of the cap being about 7 fb. The striking velocity was about the same as in the two previous, shots, with slightly increased energy. due, no doubt, to weight. This shot was directed to the centre of the plate, and the projectile went right through the plate and, the backing behind. There can be no doubt as to the enermous power of propulsion maintained by the shot after impact; the diameter of the hole made in the place. was only a in, more than the shot itself, and there was absolutely no crack in the plate. A piece of the plate, moreover, was driven right through the beeking and the skin-plate beyond the backing of the arm-Morocco binding. A complete library in our-plate, and was picked up S8 it. in the rear. The shor was completely broken up. The fourth and fifth shots were again socalled armour piercing, but without eaps, and again they were broken to pieces. The plate still stood well up against the attack, the extent of penetration being only 13 in. After this pretty severe trial, it was, continues Employering, decided to attack the plate with the 7.5-in. gov, firing an armour-piereing shell fitted with a Johnson cap as made by the Vickers Company. Such an attack upon a place of 7 in., fellowing on five shots. • as a severe panishment. The plate showed not a single crack, which proof of the satisfactory manufacture; but at the same time it was made obvious that Krupp armour, even of the very best 7, quality, cannot withstand attack from a capped shell. The 7.5-in. gun, with a charge of (2).2 lb. of cordite, developed a velocity of 2107 fr. per second, and an energy of 6301 foot tons. Even at this JUSTOMERS wishing Cigars sent to comparatively low energy, the capped shot went right through the armour-plate, the Tyre, at the Factory. We pay Duty at | backing, and the skin-plate beyond. Although the shell in this case was passed right through the plate, the point and base-plug being found 20 ft. to the rear. It was therefore evident that even with this striking energy of 6300 foot-tons it would be possible for an explosive shell to find its way through 7-in. armour into the interior of the ship, and there to do very serious damage. The 7.5-in. gun has on other official tests developed a muzzle velocity of 2020 ft, per second, an energy of 11,800 foot-tons, almost double that on the occasion of the attack against this 7-in. armour; so that, with superior propelling powder, it is possible to conceive that the degree of penetration on this occasion could be attained at very considerable ranges. In any case, the trial establishes the efficiency of the Johnson cap against the very best of armour. As an indication of the quality of the plate, Engineering adds that the proportion of energy developed in the attack to the total weight of plate works out at 3730 foot-tons per ton of plate.

THE NEW ENTERPRISE

"The Times"

(LONDON)

THE 10TH EDITION OF THE ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA OFFERED IN CHINA LONDON PRICES.

Agents, Messrs KELLY AND WALSH, LIMITED,

HONGKONG AND SHANGHAL

THE TIMES ' (London) has begun the distribution in China of the Tenth Edition of the Encyclopædia Britannia (for cash in I full or on the plan of monthly payments). An allotment for this country, limited to 125 copies for Shanghai and his copies for Hongkong, has arrived at Hongkong and subscriptions are now being registered.

for Hongkong, has arrived at Hongkong and subscriptions are now being registered.

In order that the distribution of the work may be completed quickly, 'The Times' offers a concession to those who shall subscribe viz.—the right to purchase the work at the London price, sea-freight and landing charges paid as far as Shanghai or Flongkong.

This great concession has never before been allowed by 'The Times' to subscribers in the Ear East.

Although the Encyclopædia Britannica has been sold by 'The Times' in Great Britain, in India, in Australia, in South Africa, in Canada and the United States, in Burna, Ceylon and the Straits, it is heretofore been found impossible to offer the work directly to the subscribers in China owing to the extraordinary demand for it elsewhere, and the great distance of this country from the source of EXPENDITURE OF £100,000.

The work now offered is the authentic A. & C. Black edition (with the supplement especially prepared by 'The Times') and not the mutilated, unauthorised 'pirated' edition. It has been printed from the original plates, and with the addition of the supplementary articles, it is the only reference book in which will be found the latest figures, the newest facts, the recent discoveries of science, the most accurate maps, and dealing fully and authoritatively with every phase of contemporary life, political, industrial, geographical, sociological, literary, artistic. Biographies of living men and women are, for the first time, included. In the perfecting of the new volumes the sum of £100,000 has been spent.

THE BOOK AND BUYERS.

Readers of this newspaper are already familiar with the general character of the Encyclopædia, its high literary excellence, its sound scholarship, the authority of its contributors, and are cognizant of the fact that of the Ninth Edition more than 44,000 cepies have been sold in Great Britain and the British Colonies during the last three years. The demand for it has been such, indeed, the printbeen sold in Great Dittait and the Diffish Colonies during the last three years. The delinear for it has oeen such, indeed, the printing presses in Edinburgh and the binderies in London have been working day and night for months at a time. Throughout the British Empire, not only in its most populous, but even in the mest remote sections, the Ninth Edition of the Encyclopa dia Britannica has been distributed. It is not unreasonable to say that to no other work of its kind has there been accorded so wide a public endorsement, none has ever received from its purchasers so many testimonials to its practical defulness and educational value, none can approach it in comprehensiveness, or in exhaustive and masterly treatment of subjects.

can approach it in comprehensiveness, or in exhaustive and masterly treatment of subjects.

When 'The Times' reprinted the work, and offered it to its subscribers at half the regular publishers' price, the event made a great sensation in the publishing world of London. Both press and public at once welcomed the project as a splendid stroke of newspaper enterprise. Its success was instantaneous. More than 3,000 complete sets were sold in less than a fortnight, and within a twelvementh the astonishing number of 20,000 orders has been registered at 'The Times' office in Printing House Square.

So remarkable a success, in the case of so large a work, proves that 'for the English speaking peoples, all over the world,' as 'The Times' reviewer has well said, 'there is no book of reference that can be compared to it.'

The 24 volumes of the Ninth Edition, together with the New Volumes (of which nine dead with encyclopædic subjects,' the tenth with maps, and 'the eleventh of which is a great Index), constitute the Tenth Edition of the Encyclopædia Britannies, and you other Tenth Edition will over be published. The New Volumes are already in the bands of subscribers in England, and although they were finally completed only two mouths ago, a first impression of more than 30,000 copies was required to fill the orders.

To residents of China who already possess the authentic A. & C. Black North Edition, the New Volumes will be supplied at prices 40 for cent, less than those hereafter to prevail. Prices of the New Volumes may be obtained on application to Kelly & Walsh. Ld., together with a 170 page Illustrated Prospectus of Specimen pages. Walsh, Ld., together with a 170 page Illustrated Prospectus of Specimen pages.

DELIVERY

An allotment of the Tenth edition for a livery at this part is now on the way from home and will arrive soon. Subscriptions are being registered in ad ance by Messis. Kelly and Walsh, Limited. Each set of 35 volumes is packed in a tiulized case, and delivery will be made in the order in which subscriptions shall be received. Carriage to interior and to other ports in China will be at subscribers' cost and risk.

ENCYCLOPÆDIA BRITANNICA THE NOW READY FOR DELIVERY 10th Edition, 35 Large Quartos.

Articles, 2,000 Contributors, 31,000 Pages, 614 Plates and maps, 11,400 illustrations, 40,000,000 Words of Text.

THE SAME CHINA IN LONDON.

In order to effect a quick distribution of the 10th Edition, 'The Times' effers the work in China at London prices, sea-freight and landing charge paid as far as Shanghai or Hongkong. Cheques should be made payable as follows:— 'To Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, to credit of H. E. Hooper, ' for either of the follwing amounts :--

For the Cloth Binding$340 For the Half Morocco Binding $415. For the Three Quarter Morocco Binding...... $450 (This Binding is recommended both for its durability and heauty).

Note: -The foregoing prices can apply only to the first impression of the New Volumes which 'The Times' has prepared in order to bring the original 24 volumes of the Encyclopsedia Britannica up to date. An extraordinary demand for the Supplement has made it possible to offer the 35 volumes for considerably less than the prices at which they can be sold hereafter. More than 30,000 persons at home who already possessed the early volumes have subscribed for the supplement, almost all of them in advance of its publication, so that 'The Times' was enabled to make one consecutive 'run' on the presses, and thereby to effect a large reduction in manufacturing cost. Subscribers in China are for the moment, on exactly the same feeting as subscribers in England, but orders should be registered promptly, as it will not be possible to guarantee indefinitely the acceptance of orders in China at the London prices with the additional concession of free carriage from London to Shanghai and Hongkong.

MONTHLY PAYMENTS.

The convenient and well approved system of acquiring the Encyclopaedia Britannica by monthly payments has been tried by The Times, with great success, in all parts of the world and it will now be extended to China. By this plan the subscriber paye (2) down, and $20 each month, on a given day, but he receives the entire set of 35 volumes upon receipt of the preliminary inspirent of $20. The number of monthly payments will vary according to the binding desired, as follows:—

$20 down and 17 payments of $20, for cloth, S20, for Half Morocco. $20, for Three-quarter Morocco. (This is the special 'Times' binding, and can be recommended).

$20 down and 24 payments of $25 for the Fall Merocco binding-(This binding is the best and the most beautiful and is as fine a binding as it is possible to make). By arrangement with. The Times, 'Messrs Kelly & Walsh, Ld., have been appointed agents for the Encylopædia, and are authorised to accept subscriptions at Shanghai and Horakong. Specimen volumes in the different bindings may be examined at Kelly & Walsh, Ld., and payments will be made to them c.ch month, or for cash in full now.

PROSPECTUS POST-FREE.

For fuller information regarding the Encyclopedia Britannica, intending subscribers should not fail to apply for the illustrated prospectus of specimen papers. This large and expensively printed book will be sent post-free, or delivered to messenger, upon receipt of request giving full name and address of the applicant.

The District Magistrate Ch'an King Wa received me with the greatest courtesy and during my stay here I am living in hi Yamen. The Magistrate is an energetic man, 40 years of age, a native of Höngshan, thoroughly familiar with Hongkong and Macao. He has studied Western science and methods of government wit the result that he combines an enlightened effort at improvement with patriotic devotion to his country. The Magistrate tells me that he frequently walks on foet through his district city, visiting the shops and talking with the people under his administration; and this afternoon he walked with me to see the principal places of interest in Kweishen. Any petitioner is admitted directly to the presence of the Magistrate, as would be the case in Hongkong. Moreover the Magistrate has at last succeeded in practically clearing his district of robber-bands. Some are so thin and starved that no one will purchase them. The Magistrate informs me that at first he wished to prohibit the sale, but that when he saw that unless the children were sold both children and parents must starve be changed his mind and allowed the sale to continue. The gentry estimate that, some 10,000 children (boys and girls alike) have already been sold, and that eight wives out of every ten in this district have also been sold.

With a view to the alleviation of this distress the Mugistrate and the gentry are making free distribution of gruel made Within Kweishen itself daily distribution is made to upwards of 2,000 persons in the temple of Confucius. IN ORIGINAL JURISDICTION. (Before His Honour Sir H. S. Berkeley, Acting Chief Justine, and at Special Jury). Wednesday, May 6.

THE "ZAVIRO" CASE.

The hearing of the action in which the Man Loong sues the China and Manila S.S. Co. for the sum of $50,000 U. S. currency was resumed before a full court of interested listeners, including the now regular bevy of fair ladies.

The jurors were-Messrs A. Shelton Hooper (foreman), J. W. Bolles, J. J. Leiria, A. Turner, G. Mayer and F. D. Goddard.

Parties were represented as follows: -Mr M. W. Slade for the plaintiff, instructed by Mr F, Paget Hett (of Mr G, K. H. Brutton's Office); Mr H. E. Pollock, K.C., and Mr T. Morgan Phillips for the defendant company, instructed by Mr J. Hastings (of Mesers Deacon and Hastings). Mr E. H. He suggested, if His Lordship decided that the onus of proof was upon the plaintiff, that the following question then they must give a verdict for the should be put to the jury .- ' Are you satisfied whether it has been proved that the box shipped contained $50,060?' If His Lordship decided that the cons was on the defendants then the question might be put :- 'Are you satisfied that it has been proved that the box shipped did not coninin $50.000 ?' But if a siggestion made by His Lordship yesterday were accepted then both questions might be put. Then there was another specific question he had his more statements without strong corto suggest for the jury, viz., 'Are you rehappive evidence, or any assertion he satisfied that it has been proved that the afterwards made. He proceeded to deal with the subject of contraces in Manila and the business done by the plaintiff in Hongkong with American ships, and contended that the payments for goods supplied were made in gold. Dealing with the suggestion that it was unlikely his client would keep this money for a number of years instead of turning it into silver he contended that the Chinese were in the habit of hearding up gold, and it was a reasonable thing to do since the value of gold did not fluctuate like silver. Mr Slade next replied to the assumption that because the plaintiff did not produce documentary evidence to show how he came into possession of the notes in issue he had never had them, and also to the lack of balance sheets and statements of his partnership dealings. He said this was a matter between him and his partner only, and if they chose to carry on their business in a slipshod manner that was their own

Mr Slade proceeded to submit to the jury that the plaintiff gave true particulars of the contents of the box, and dealt with the weight of the box to show that the evidence of the witnesses for the plaintiff practically agreed with the positive evidence brought forward by the defendants. Referring to the false statements made by the plaintiff in the interview with Mr John Hastings and Mr Fung Wa the initial lie told by Mr Fung Wa Chuan, believed he was dealing with an un-

His Lordship said the reply sent them to the bill of lading to find out exactly what it was the parties contracted they should do on this bill of lading. The bill of lading was in the ordinary form. It stated that a package of merchandiss was shipped on the Zufiro, marked in a certain way, and 'said to contain $50,000 gold money. In his opinion, there was no specific declaration by plaintiff there that he was shipping in (gold); he was shipping a case ' said to contain $50,000. Then in the body of the bill of lading they found the words about the half of Messra Shewan. Tomes and Co., general managers of the defendant Company, "Weight, value and contents unknown. HONGKONG GENERAL CHAM-BER OF COMMERCE.

At a month'y meeting of the General Committee of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerca held in the Chamber Room, City Hall; on Wednesday, 15th April. Present :- Mr E. A. Hewett (Vice-Chairman), Hon. C. W. Dickson, Measrs D. R. Law, C. Michelau, N. A. Siebs, J R. M. Smith, H. E. Tomkins, R. C. Wilcox, A. G. Wood, Hon. R. Shewan (ex officio), and A. R. Lowe, Secretary. COLLISIONS BETWEEN JUNKS AND STEAMERS.

The following letter was read :-Colonial Secretary's Office, March 23rd, 1903.

Sir,-Adverting to Mr Wilcox's letter of the 25th April, 1902, and the Acting Colonial Secretary's reply No. 995 of 7th May last, I am directed to refer you to Ordinance No. 39 of 1902, the provisions of which it is hoped will tend to prevent collisions between Junks and Steamers, and to state that as at present advised this Government is not prepared to act on the suggestion contained in the last paragraph of your letter under reference .- I have,

F. H. MAY, Colonial Secretary.

The SECRETARY,

The Vice Chairman said that the new Ordinance brought in to meet representations from this Chamber practically placed junks and ships on the high seas on an equality before the court as legards lights in collision cases, and as far as that went it was a great improvement. It was pointed out in the discussion which followed that the Government declined to protect owners of steamers by making a reasonable time limit after the occurrence of an accident. subsequent to which it would not be possible to commence any action for damages, nor had they met the request of the Chamber that the junk owner should furnish security in the Colony and possessed of property within the jurisdiction of the Court. The Committee decided to record its dis satisfaction with the decision of the Government, and it was agreed to ask the Government to reconsider the matter with a view to putting a stop to the numerous speculative actions for excessive collision damages against steamers brought by owners of old or worn-out junks in the hope that the steamship owner might be induced to make some offer to settle the case before going to trial. NEW RULES AND REGULATIONS. The Vice-Chairman said that the question of revising the present rules and bye-laws had been before the Committee for some time, and the late Chairman, Mr C. S. Sharp, had given much time to the matter. The present rules, some of which are out of date, had been in force since 1874, and the new regulations now laid on the table were the result of the work of the Sub-Committee formed at the last monthly meeting. Rules had also been drawn for regulating the procedure at General Meetings called for the purpose of electing a representative of the Chambor in the Legislative Council. After some discussion the new Rules and Regulations. subject to a few minor alterations, which were agreed to, were ordered to be printed and circulated to all the Members at least 10 days prior to the annual meeting to allow the Members at that meeting the opportunity of adopting them as provided by

SCALE OF COMMISSION AND BROKERAGE. The Vice-Chairman said the revision the scale which had been in force since 1872 had been engaging the attention of the Committee during the past month. Certain alterations were made and the revised soale ordered to be printed and circulated for the information of the Members in order that it may be confirmed at the forthcoming general meeting. DATE OF ANNUAL MEETING. The Vice-Chairman stated that through the delay in printing the great mass of matter required for the annual report and the recent holidays, it would not be possible to hold the annual meeting until next month and that another Committee Meeting would be called shortly to consider the report and the Chairman's speech, which he would draw up for approval if so desired. This was agreed to nem. con.

The meeting then terminated.

ANÆMIC WOMEN

STEARNS' WINE OF COD LIVER

A TYPICAL CASE. Even in these enlightened days in which hysical exercise forms so important a part of the life of womanhood, ansemia still remains a curse and the cause of much misery and mortality. Fortunately, in Stearns' Wine of Cod Liver Oil we now possess a remedy which is as effiacious as it is delicious. The weakest and most fastidious invalid can take it, because it is easly digestible and assimilable. This is one of its great advantages over cod liver oil, which is at once pauseous and indigestible. The following case is a typical

82. Devonshire Road, Chiswick, W. Having suffered from aniemia, I was advised to try Stearns' Wine of Cod Liver Oil. I did so, and felt so much better with the trial that I was forced to get a second bottle. I am pleased to say that I feel quite a different girl. It is very pleasant to take and has nothing of the taste of cod liver oil, which so many object to. I have great pleasure in writing to you, and if it will be of any advantage to anyone else I hope you will make uso (Miss) E. CORNWELL.

For anemia, incipient consumption, bronchial affections, pulmonary troubles, and wasting diseases of all kinds. Stearns' Wine of Cod Liver Oil is an ideal remedy; it builds up new tissue, enriches poor blood, and brings back the charm and comeliness of perfect health. Steams' Wine of Cod Liver Oil contains no oily matter; clements of cod liver oil dissolved in a pure palatable wine, to which is added peptonate of iron to increase its tonic value, Sold by all Chemists and A.
